

Many Sons to Glory Bringing

(Rhineland. 8. 7. 8. 7.)

Mary Bowley

Wilhelm Brockhaus

The musical score is written in 3/2 time and consists of two staves: a treble clef staff at the top and a bass clef staff at the bottom. The melody is primarily in the treble staff, with a bass line providing harmonic support. The lyrics are printed below the treble staff, with each line of music corresponding to a line of text. The lyrics are as follows:

1. Man - y sons to glo - ry bring-ing, God sets forth His heaven-ly name;
2. God, who gave the blood to screen us, God looks down in per - fect love;
3. Tho' the rest-less foe ac - cus - es, Sins re - count-ing like a flood,
4. In the ref - uge God pro - vid - ed, Tho' the world's de - struc-tion lowers,
5. And, ere long, when come to glo - ry, We shall sing a well-known strain,

Many Sons to Glory Bringing

On we march, in cho - rus sing - ing, "Wor - thy the as - cend - ed Lamb!"
Clouds may seem to pass be - tween us, There's no change in Him a - bove.
Ev - 'ry charge our God re - fus - es: Christ has answered with His blood.
We are safe— to Christ con - fid - ed, Ev - er - last - ing life is ours.
This— the nev - er - tir - ing sto - ry— "Wor - thy is the Lamb once slain!"
