2014

Department of Commerce
Statistical Division

Message from the Director

It is with great pleasure that I present the 2014 Statistical Yearbook for American Samoa. The 2014 Statistical Yearbook is the thirty-fourth annual publication of compendia detailing both historical and current economic and social characteristics of the Territory. The information contained in this yearbook provides a useful source of data for the local community as well as leaders in government, businesses and civic organizations.

I would like to commend the many government agencies (both local and federal), private businesses, and individuals who have contributed diligently in making this publication possible.

I hope the users of this book will find its content useful and informative. I also welcome any comments or suggestions for improving these statistical series. A suggestion and comment sheet is provided at the end of the book for this purpose.

Section One

This section presents statistics on growth, geographic distribution and general characteristics of the local population.

The U.S. Census Bureau has released the 2010 Census total population and breakdown of the population by district, county and village levels. The 2010 Census counted the population of American Samoa at 55,519. According to the 2010 Census information, the median age was 22.4 years and the gender ratio was recorded at 103 males for every 100 females.

The population density (average number of persons per square kilometer) in 2013 was 199. This number could be a lot higher given the ruggedness and steep mountainous landscaping of the islands. People move to other places because of economic reasons, availability of land resources, and socio-political stability. The Manu'a Island residents continued to relocate to the main island of Tutuila looking for better economic opportunities or attending schools. Tutuila's population shifted from the Eastern District to the Western District in the past decades. In the 2010 Census, there were 31,329 people living in the Western District while 23,030 people live in the Eastern District.

The mid-year population estimate is calculated annually using the Balancing Equation Method. The estimates show a declining trend in the population since 2009; from 70,100 to 61,811. The mid-year population estimates, as calculated by the Department of Commerce, may be different significantly when compared to those calculated elsewhere such as the Secretariat of the Pacific Community. Sources of data may be suspected as the cause of this critical disparity.

While the proportion of the American Samoa born population remained above 50 percent, the trend of foreign-born has increased from less than 20 percent in 1960 to over 40 percent in the 2010 census. The majority of the foreign-born were from neighboring Samoa accounted for about 30 percent, followed by the US born population with 6 percent. The resident population remained ethnically Samoan at 85 percent. There were over 19,000 that were neither citizen nor national of the United States. A full set of detailed demographic, social, economic and housing data on the American Samoa Census 2010 down to the block level geography can be found on the US Census Bureau website: <http://www.census.gov/2010census/news/press-kits/island-areas/island-areas.html>.

Section Two

VITAL AND HEALTH STATISTICS

This section presents data on births, deaths, life expectancy, marriages, diseases, patient visits and hospital discharges.

The LBJ Medical Authority reported 1,084 births and 259 deaths in 2014. Teen births dropped again to 117 births in 2014. The Crude Birth Rate (CBR), Crude Death Rate (CDR), infant mortality rate, neonatal mortality rate, and fetal deaths for 2014 are shown on table 2.1. The leading causes of death in 2014 were Heart Disease, Malignant Neoplasm, Septicemia, Cerebrovascular Disease and Influenza/Pneumonia.

Population natural growth is defined as total births minus deaths. The natural growth of the population in 2014 was 825 and is still slowly decreasing from 2013. Natural growth prior to 2005 registered above 1,300 persons added to the local population each year. The number of out-patient visits in 2014 was 126,572, an increase of 25,502 from the previous year. The number of Dental Clinic visits increased significantly from last year. Marriage licenses processed at the Vital Statistics saw an increase in 2014. There were 217 marriage licenses recorded in the registry in 2014.

STATISTICAL YEARBOOK 2014

Section Five

CLIMATE

This section presents climate data for American Samoa.

American Samoa has a tropical maritime climate with abundant rain and warm, humid days and nights. The average temperature in 2014 was recorded at 81.7 degrees Fahrenheit. Throughout the past ten years, average temperature remained between 75.1 and 83.3 degrees. A total of 125.91 inches of rainfall was recorded in 2014. The month of January recorded the most rain with 19.54 inches and September recorded the lowest rainfall with 2.60 inches.

The two main seasons in Samoa are those of wet and dry, sometimes referred to as 'summer' and 'winter'. However, these are actually relative terms as it still rains quite a bit during the dry season. In addition, the south coast receives, on an annual basis, approximately twice as much rain as the north coast.

Summer or wet season is also cyclone season and runs from November through April. Winds tend to be either calm or mainly out of the north. Although heavy rain, showers and long rainy periods can occur any month of the year, torrential downpours are most common and humidity is at its peak during the summer months.

Winter or dry season is also Trade Wind season and runs May through October. The Trade Winds are mainly south-easterly but can turn to a more easterly direction at times. During the winter months the Trade Winds tend to blow rather incessantly and can range from anywhere from mild to rather strong at times. However, the Trade Winds can also blow during any month of the year, not just the winter months, or they might unexpectedly stop blowing in the middle of the Trade Wind season, often for days at a time.

Note: A cooling degree day is a unit used to relate the day's temperature to the energy demands of air conditioning.

Cooling degree days are calculated by subtracting 65 from a day's average temperature. For example, if the day's high is 90°F and the day's low is 70°F, the day's average is 80°F. Eighty minus 65 is 15 cooling degree days.

Cooling degree days can be used to compare the current summer to past summers. It can also be used to compare the heat in one part of the country with another.

Section Six

LAND USE/REGISTRATION, HOUSING CHARACTERISTICS, AND BUILDING PERMITS

This section presents statistics on land use, land ownership registration and tenure, housing characteristics, building permits, type and value of construction activities.

American Samoa has a total land area of 48,767 acres and about two-thirds of the land is steeply sloping and virtually inaccessible. Land registration at the Office of the Territorial Registrar added another 9 acres of land in 2014, which increases the registered acres of land to approximately 7,896. Land ownership registration is categorized into five titles. Communal land holds 26.8 percent, individually-owned holds 25.7 percent, government-owned holds 20.9 percent, freehold land holds 13.6 percent and church-owned holds 13.0 percent.

In the 2010 Census, American Samoa registered 10,963 housing units. Of the 10,963 housing units, 88 percent were occupied and 12 percent (1,275) were vacant. Of the 9,688 occupied housing units, 73 percent were owner-occupied and 27 percent were renter-occupied. In the Tualauta County, Tafuna village had the highest number of occupants per room in both owner-occupied and renter-occupied units.

Approximately 55 percent of the 10,963 housing units were located in the Maoputasi and Tualauta counties. Furthermore, these two counties absorbed most of the growth: a combined 68 percent of the rental market. Housing units are characterized as single detached units, attached units, 2 houses, 3 or more houses. This is unique to American Samoa where about 8 percent of households live in two or more houses. Those living in apartment housing although small but are on the rise as 7 percent of households live in building with two or more housing units. Those living in single detached houses have increased slightly from 78 percent in 2000 to 79 percent in 2010.

The number of building permits issued dropped again in 2014 to 261. Permits issued for new structures increased to 200 in 2014. Permits for extension, repair and alteration decreased in 2014 with 239. The estimated value of construction in 2014 remained at $16 million.

Section Nine

GOVERNMENT FINANCE

This section presents statistical data on government revenues and expenditures.

In 2002, the American Samoa Government adopted GASB Statement No. 34. It is a reporting approach established by Governmental Accounting Standards Board to enforce new requirements and a new reporting model for the annual financial reports of state and local governments. Its primary purpose is to develop annual financial reports for easier interpretations and understandings of government funding. GASB No. 34 has technically changed the format of the financial statements in contrast to the previous years. This had made financial data incompatible for analytical purposes. Therefore, it is difficult to evaluate the financial trend from previous to 2002.

The American Samoa Government collected $279.9 million in revenues and spent $286.4 million in Fiscal Year 2014. The resulting deficit was $6.45 million. In Fiscal Year 2013, the government collected $241.2 million in revenues and spent $243.7 million resulting in a $2.5 million deficit. Federal grants accounted for 68.5 percent of revenues in FY 2014. Local taxes accounted for 30.7 percent of revenues in the same fiscal year.

In Fiscal Year 2014, 5.7 percent of expenditures were for Public Safety and 19.3 percent were for General Government.

Section Ten

LABOR FORCE, EMPLOYMENT AND EARNINGS

This section presents statistical data on labor force participation, employment and earnings.

Total employment in 2014 was estimated at 17,565. General government and the four authorities made up 37 percent of the workforce in 2014. In 2013, it increased by 8.7 percent and then again in 2014 by 9 percent. Both government and the private sector employment increased in 2014.

The Fair Minimum Wage Act of 2007 (Public Law 110-28) ordered new wage increases for American Samoa. The law stipulated $0.50 increases to current local minimum wages every year until it reaches the US minimum wage of $7.25 an hour. Local minimum wages for various industries in American Samoa had another fifty-cent increase on May 25, 2009. In 2010, a bill was passed to postpone the 50 cents increases for 2010 and 2011 until September 30, 2012 when this issue will be discussed again in the U.S. Congress. Another bill was approved by Congress in 2012 to postpone the minimum wage increase (50 cents) until September 30, 2015. The current minimum wage rates by industry in American Samoa still remain on the last 50 cents increase on May 25, 2009.

In 2010, the median household income was $23,892. Close to $350 million worth of income from all sources were received by all residents of the territory in 2010. Thus, the per capita income was $6,311.

In 2010, about 57.8 percent of all persons or 54.4 percent of families were below the national poverty level. Of the 3,875 grandparents reported to have lived with their grandchildren, 66 percent of them were responsible for grandchildren.

This section presents statistical data on local consumer prices and indices with some household expenditure information from previous household surveys.

American Samoa initiated a Consumer Price Index rebase in the fourth quarter of 2007. Commodity descriptions and household spending details from the 2005 household income and expenditure survey were utilized for creating new CPI weights distributions. The current CPI was expanded and added three new subgroups making it 9 subgroups now. Two other major revisions were done to the CPI since the inception in 1974. The first revision was carried out in 1982 after consultation with an SPC CPI expert and then another one in 1997 using the 1995 household income and expenditure survey results.

Due to certain challenges with the process, there was no final report for the 2005 Household Income and Expenditure Survey (HIES). The household expenditures from the 1995 HIES is still being published until a new HIES is conducted. The 2015 HIES preliminary results will be published in our 2015 yearbook.

The Consumer Price Index in 2014 registered at an average of 133.8 index points for All Items. The average inflation rate in 2014 was calculated at 0.7 percent. Table 11.4 shows average retail prices of selected commodities from 2004-2014. Units for a few commodities were changed and noted on the bottom of the table. Noted also were the corrections to the CPIs since the second quarter of 2008. A review of the average retail price of some commodities uncovered a posting error, hence the revisions. However, they were of minute differences.

COMMUNICATION AND TRANSPORTATION

This section presents statistical data on communication and transportation services including vehicle registration and driver licenses, vessel and cargo movements, and air traffic and aircraft operations.

The number of landline telephones increased slightly by half a percent in 2014 compared to the previous year. Cellular phones however dropped by 27% in 2014. Internet subscribers dropped to 3,140 in 2014 compared to 3,515 in 2013, which is an 11% drop.

There were 2,790 cable service subscribers in 2014 which is a 14% drop from 2013. There were 31,746 text messages in 2014, an increase of 22% from 2013.

The Office of Motor Vehicle in 2014 recorded 9,450 vehicle registrations. Commercial and private vehicles registrations contributed to the majority of registered vehicles. The number of ASG registered vehicles dropped slightly by 11 in 2014.

The number of licenses and permits issued in 2014 increased to 7,556 from 7,477 in 2013. Both private licenses and commercial permits contributed to this increase.

The vessel movement and cargo movement within the Territory in 2014 indicated significant increase from the previous year. The vessel movement (incoming/outgoing) showed an average increase of 50%. Table 12.5 shows that most of the vessels coming in to the Territory fall under the others category. Other vessels that entered and left the Territory were freighters, yachts, tankers, and cruise ships.

There were 3,099 flights that landed at Pago Pago International Airport in 2014, compared to 3,665 in 2013. The incoming flights carried 55,728 passengers and the same number of flights took off carrying 57,355 passengers. About 1.8 million pounds of cargo and 1.3 million pounds of mail were brought in by commercial carriers. Outgoing cargo and mail were reported as less than that of incoming loads.

There were 162 flights in 2014 between Pago Pago and Honolulu. This is an average of 14 flights per month. In 2014, there were 2,628 flights between Pago Pago and Samoa (an average of 219 flights per month).

STATISTICAL YEARBOOK 2014

Section Thirteen

AGRICULTURE AND FISHING

This section presents statistics on agricultural land, farms, farm tenures, field crops and livestock, and local fishing.

The Agricultural Census, which is conducted every five years, is usually conducted as supplement to the Decennial Census of Population and Housing. The one slated for 2013 was canceled due to the unavailability of financial assistance from USDA-NASS. Therefore, data is reproduced as presented in table 13.1 to table 13.9 from the 2008 Agricultural Census.

A total of 5,840 farms were covered in 2008. Approximately 39 percent of total land area (19,003 acres) is used for farming. This includes cropland, pastureland, and other farm uses including woodland. The majority of farms were cropland farms covering over 12,971 acres of land. Forty-four percent of farms were 1 to 2 acres in size. Another 22 percent were one or less acre in size. Similar distributions of average farm sizes were seen in both the 2003 and 2008 censuses.

All agricultural farming whether for commercial resale or home consumption were valued at $49.3 million in 2008. This is a significant drop from the 2003 census with $58.2 million. The drop in value of agriculture farming was probably due to flooding which affected American Samoa in 2003 and Hurricane Heta that devastated the islands in January 2004.

Staple food like giant taro increased significantly in FY2014. Whereas, taro only increased by 2 percent. Breadfruit and green banana dropped this fiscal year. Vegetables sold at the marketplace dropped by 18,714 pounds from the previous year.

In 2014, about 102,122 pounds of fish were caught by local fishermen. This is a slight drop of 0.6% from the previous year which recorded 102,735 pound of fish caught. Longlining method of fishing contributed to this drop in catch volume. The number of boats utilized increased after four years of downward slide from 25 in 2013 to 32 in 2014. The number of fishermen dropped to 69 in 2014 from 75 in 2013.

STATISTICAL YEARBOOK 2014

Section Fourteen

COMMERCE AND TRADE

This section covers data on trade, government purchases, and business registration.

In the last publication, trade data was classified using the 2012 Harmonized System Code.

The American Samoa Balance of Trade in fiscal year 2014 recorded a deficit of $255.4 million. Imports include government purchases, value of fish brought in for processing for the canneries, and value of commercial merchandise brought in for resale. Trade data is still considered incomplete because of the absence of the Post Exchange (PX) data from the import series. The value of exports is made up primarily of canned tuna and by-products.

Imports brought in through Customs Regulations for commercial use and resale valued at $496.9 million in fiscal year 2014. The United States continued to be American Samoa's leading trade partner, followed by New Zealand, Korea and Fiji.

There were major revisions done to the trade tables that were published in the 2012 yearbook. The availability of confirmed data on some major imports warranted such revisions.

The Department of Commerce and Treasury are collaborating on improving imports statistics by utilizing a new system to capture imports to include value, quantity and unit of measure, country of import and origin, as well classifying commodities in the HS coding system. The new system will be implemented at the start of Fiscal Year 2015. Although implementation is still early but trial runs were conducted in which Customs staff were trained in using this new system.

Section Fifteen

ELECTRICITY AND WATER

This section presents statistical data on electricity production and consumption, number of meters and water usage.

Total gross kWh of electricity generated in 2014 amounted to 156 million. About 7.1 million kWh were used in the production of electricity, netting 147.4 million kWh for sale. With 8.5 percent of line loss, only 134.8 million kWh were sold. Fuel efficiency remained at 14.6 kWh per gallon for the past year. Lube efficiency decreased to 2,569 in 2014.

About 10.7 million gallons of fuel were consumed in FY2014. The average cost of a gallon of fuel dropped to $3.597 in FY2014. With the decrease in fuel cost, the fuel surcharge also dropped proportionally in this period.

The number of meters slightly went up in FY2014 to 12,339. The majority of meters were for residential usage (about 87.1 percent of total meters). About 8.0 percent were for commercial usage. The rest were for government (3.7 percent), ASPA (1.2 percent) and large power (.03 percent).

In 2014, about 1,639 million gallons of water were sold and costing American Samoa Power Authority about $2.6 million for production.
